From the Editor

First off I would like to thank Mary W. for helping me with this months newsletter. I have not been nor will I be home the majority of July. So Mary W. has agreed to get the newsletters out in the mail. I just checked my email for the first time in a few weeks and unfortunately I did not see the minutes from last month. I will try to be more organized in the future. Also, since I was not at the GSR meeting I didn't get the treasures report. Sorry.

If you wish to submit articles to The Chronicle please send them to the addresses below by the 18th of the month.

Step Eight

Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.

"We subjected ourselves to a drastic self-appraisal. Now we go out to our fellows and repair the damage done in the past. We attempt to sweep away the debris which has accumulated out of our effort to live self-will and run the show ourselves. If we haven't the will to do this, we ask until it comes"

"HEARD IT THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE"

The "AA Grapevine" is AA's national monthly magazine fondly referred to our "meeting in print" and is a splendid tool of recovery. The "AA Grapevine" has been published continuously since its first issue in June 1944. In addition to a monthly magazine, the Grapevine also produces anthologies, audiocassette tapes and audio CDs based on published articles, an annual wall calendar, and a pocket planner as well as many books. The complete list of Grapevine books and other materials are available in the Grapevine catalogue, available through your Group or District GVR. ~~~~~ August Grapevine: Special Section: "Life on Life's Terms" and "High Speed Search for Peace of Mind" - A worldwide journey to find home. And, "The Gift That Never Dies" - An alcoholic learns how to love in AA. Plus: "Who's Saving the Seat for the Newcomer?" ~~~~~ Humor from Grapevines Past: *Egoist is a person who sees life through "I" glasses. *Low self-esteem is being convicted by a jury of one's fears. -May 1987 *An alcoholic seeing a sign at a bar: "Happy Hour -- all you can drink, $1.00", will go in and order two dollars worth. -Sept. 1988 *A lush had been hauled before a judge and fined $100 for drunken driving. He paid the clerk of the court and was given a receipt. Waving it at the judge, he asked snappishly, "What am I supposed to do with this thing?" "Save it," was the reply. "When you collect three of them, you get to ride a bicycle." *Being intoxicated is feeling "sophisticated" without being able to pronounce it. *Snappy remark by a wife to her drunken spouse:
